Requests for additional copies of this Tender Offer Memorandum or related documents may be directed to the Information and Tender Agent as set forth on the last page of this Tender Offer Memorandum. If any Noteholder is in doubt as to the contents of this Tender Offer Memorandum or the actions it should take, it is recommended that it seeks its broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee for assistance concerning the Tender Offer.

None of the Dealer Managers nor the Information and Tender Agent (or any of their respective directors, employees or affiliates) assumes any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the information concerning the Tender Offer or the Company contained in this Tender Offer Memorandum or for any failure by the Company to disclose events that may have occurred and may affect the significance or accuracy of the information in this Tender Offer Memorandum. Each Dealer Manager and the Information and Tender Agent accordingly disclaims all and any liability whether arising in tort or contract or which it might otherwise have in respect of this Tender Offer Memorandum, the Tender Offer or any such failure by the Company.

In the ordinary course of its business, each of the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent is entitled to hold positions in the Notes either for its own account or for the account, directly or indirectly, of third parties. In the ordinary course of its business, each is entitled to continue to hold or dispose of, in any manner it may elect, subject to applicable law, any Notes it may hold as of the date of this Tender Offer Memorandum. No such submission or non-submission by the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent should be taken by any Noteholder or any other person as any recommendation or otherwise by the Dealer Managers or Information and Tender Agent as to the merits of participating or not participating in the Tender Offer.

Each Noteholder is solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal of all matters as such Noteholder deems appropriate (including those relating to the Tender Offer) and each Noteholder must make its own decision as to whether to tender or not tender its Notes for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer. None of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, its management, directors or commissioners, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates is providing Noteholders with any legal, business, tax or other advice in this Tender Offer Memorandum or in connection with the Tender Offer or is making any recommendation as to whether Holders should tender, or refrain from tendering, all or any portion of the principal amount of their Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer. Holders should consult with their own advisers as needed to assist in making a decision to participate and to advise as to whether such Holders are legally permitted to tender Notes.

To effectively tender Notes as to which the Noteholder is a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, the beneficial owner of those Notes must instruct the Noteholder to tender such Notes on behalf of the beneficial owner.

Beneficial owners should be aware that their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee may establish its own earlier deadline for participation in the Tender Offer. Accordingly, beneficial owners wishing to participate in the Tender Offer should contact their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee as soon as possible in order to determine the time by which such owner must take action in order to so participate.

All of the Notes are held in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC. Any beneficial owner of Notes held through DTC must instruct their DTC participant through which such beneficial owner's Notes are held to tender the Notes on such beneficial owner's behalf. DTC has authorized DTC participants that hold Notes on behalf of beneficial owners of Notes through DTC to tender their Notes as if they were Noteholders. To effect a tender of Notes, DTC participants must electronically transmit tenders of Notes to DTC through DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP") and follow the procedure for book-entry transfer set forth under "Procedures for Tendering Notes — Tender of Notes Held Through DTC."

Beneficial owners of Notes held through Euroclear or Clearstream who are not participants in Euroclear or Clearstream must contact their broker, dealer, bank, custodian, trust company or other nominee to arrange for their participant in Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, to submit instructions to such Clearing System in accordance with its requirements, and ensure that the Notes in the relevant Clearing System are blocked in accordance with the requirements and deadlines of such Clearing System. Euroclear and Clearstream will confirm the blocking of the Notes to the Information and Tender Agent. Such beneficial owners should not submit such instruction directly to the Information and Tender Agent, the Company or the Trustee. See "Procedures for Tendering Notes — Tender of Notes Held Through Euroclear or Clearstream."

The Tender Offer is conditioned upon satisfaction or waiver of the General Conditions (as defined herein).

Notes repurchased by the Company pursuant to the Tender Offer will be promptly cancelled. Notes that have not been validly tendered and/or accepted for purchase, or which have been tendered and validly withdrawn, pursuant to the Tender Offer will remain outstanding after the Payment Date.

The Company and its affiliates may and therefore reserve the right at any time or from time to time following completion or cancellation of the Tender Offer, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to purchase any Notes or other indebtedness, including any Notes that remain outstanding after the consummation or cancellation of the Tender Offer, through open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, one or more additional tender or exchange offers or otherwise, at prices that may or may not be equal to the Tender Offer Consideration, including greater consideration, for such Notes.

Tendering Noteholders will not be obligated to pay brokerage fees, commissions or other expenses of the Information and Tender Agent in its capacity as such. Noteholders who tender their Notes through a custodian bank, depository, broker, trust company or other nominee should consult such institution as to whether it charges any service fees.

The tender of Notes by a Noteholder in accordance with the procedures set forth herein will constitute acceptance of the Tender Offer by the Noteholder subject to the terms and conditions of the Tender Offer, and an agreement by such Noteholder to deliver good and marketable title to the Notes on the date on which such Notes are accepted for purchase by the Company, free and clear of all liens, charges, claims, encumbrances, interests and restrictions of any kind.

No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations other than those contained herein and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been authorized. In those jurisdictions where the securities, blue sky or other laws require the Tender Offer to be made by a licensed broker or dealer, the Tender Offer will be deemed to be made on behalf of the Company by one or more registered brokers or dealers licensed under the laws of such jurisdiction. Neither the delivery of this Tender Offer Memorandum and related documents nor any purchase of Notes will, under any circumstances, create any implication that the information contained herein or therein is current as of any time subsequent to the date of this Tender Offer Memorandum.

Holders must comply with all laws that apply in any place in which such Holders possess this Tender Offer Memorandum. Holders must also obtain any consents or approvals that are needed and comply with any laws that apply in order to tender Notes. None of the Company, its subsidiaries, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent or any of their respective directors, employees, advisers or affiliates is responsible for Holders' compliance with these legal requirements.

Noteholders should carefully consider all of the information in this Tender Offer Memorandum before tendering or not tendering Notes for purchase by the Company pursuant to the Tender Offer. A decision to participate or not participate in the Tender Offer will involve certain risks. See “Certain Considerations.”

Noteholders who do not participate in the Tender Offer, or whose Notes are not accepted for purchase by the Company, will continue to hold their Notes subject to the terms and conditions of the Notes.

NEITHER THIS TENDER OFFER MEMORANDUM NOR ANY RELATED DOCUMENT HAS BEEN FILED WITH THE U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION, NOR HAS ANY SUCH DOCUMENT BEEN FILED WITH OR REVIEWED BY ANY U.S. STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION OR THE REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF ANY COUNTRY. NO AUTHORITY HAS PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS TENDER OFFER MEMORANDUM OR ANY RELATED DOCUMENTS, AND IT IS UNLAWFUL AND A CRIMINAL OFFENSE IN THE UNITED STATES TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY.

It is a violation of Rule 14e-4 (promulgated under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”)) for a person, directly or indirectly, to tender Notes for his own account unless such person (a) has a net long position equal to or greater than the aggregate principal amount of the Notes being tendered and (b) will cause such Notes to be delivered in accordance with the terms of the Tender Offer. Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act provides a similar restriction applicable to the tender or guarantee of a tender on behalf of another person. A tender of Notes in the Tender Offer under any of the procedures described above will constitute a binding agreement between the tendering Holder and the Company with respect to the Tender Offer upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Tender Offer, including the tendering Holder’s acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Tender Offer, as well as the tendering Holder’s representation and warranty that (a) such Holder has a net long position in the Notes being tendered pursuant to the Tender Offer within the meaning of Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act and (b) the tender of such Notes complies with Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act.

It may be difficult for U.S. Holders (as defined below) to enforce their rights and claims arising out of the U.S. federal securities laws, since the Company is located in a country other than the United States and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of countries other than the United States. U.S. Holders may not be able to sue a non-U.S. company or its officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-U.S. company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court’s judgment.

CERTAIN CONSIDERATIONS

The following section does not describe all of the risks of participating or not participating in the Tender Offer for Noteholders. In deciding whether to tender your Notes in the Tender Offer, you should carefully consider the factors described below, together with the other information contained in this Tender Offer Memorandum, including the information described under the heading “Forward-Looking Statements.” Noteholders should make inquiries as they think appropriate regarding the terms of the Tender Offer all without relying on the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent or any other person.

No recommendation has been made as to whether Noteholders should tender Notes.

The Tender Offer Consideration to be paid by the Company with respect to the Notes validly tendered and accepted in the Tender Offer will have no necessary relationship to the actual value of the Notes. Noteholders should independently and carefully analyze the value of the Notes, consult their own investment, legal and tax advisors and make an independent assessment of the terms of the Tender Offer. Neither the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Trustee nor the Information and Tender Agent has expressed any opinion as to whether the terms of the Tender Offer are fair. Neither the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Trustee nor the Information and Tender Agent makes any recommendation that Noteholders should tender their Notes in the Tender Offer or refrain from doing so, and none of them has authorized anyone to make any such recommendation.

Upon tender, the Notes will be held in blocked accounts.

When considering whether to tender Notes in the Tender Offer, Noteholders should take into account that restrictions on the transfer of the Notes by Noteholders will apply from the time of submission of an instruction with the Clearing System. A Noteholder will, on submitting an instruction with the Clearing System, be deemed to agree that the relevant Notes will be blocked in the relevant Clearing System (and not able to be transferred by the Noteholder) with effect from the date the tender of Notes is made until the earlier of (i) the time of settlement on the Payment Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date (as applicable) and (ii) the date on which the Tender Offer is terminated or revoked, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Tender Offer.

Any fees, if any, which may be charged by the relevant Clearing System to the direct participant in connection with the blocking (or unblocking) of the Notes or otherwise must be borne by the direct participant or as otherwise agreed between the direct participant and the relevant Noteholder. For the avoidance of doubt, direct participants and Noteholders shall have no recourse to the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent or the Trustee with respect to such costs.

Noteholders are responsible for complying with the procedures of this Tender Offer Memorandum.

Participating Noteholders are solely responsible for complying with all of the procedures for participating in the Tender Offer, including the submission of instructions with the Clearing Systems. Neither the Company, the Dealer Managers nor the Information and Tender Agent nor any of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates or representatives assumes any responsibility for informing Noteholders of any irregularities with respect to submitting instructions with the Clearing Systems or withdrawal of instructions. Failure to comply with the applicable procedures may result in an offer for purchase of Notes not being accepted.

Noteholders are referred to the offer and distribution restrictions in the section entitled “Offer and Distribution Restrictions” and the acknowledgements, representations, warranties and undertakings in “Additional Terms of the Tender Offer,” which Noteholders will be deemed to make on tendering Notes in the Tender Offer. Non-compliance with these could result in, among other things, the cancellation of the Tender Offer, non-acceptance of tenders, unwinding of trades and/or other penalties.

The Tender Offer is subject to certain conditions.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Tender Offer, the Company will not be obligated to accept for purchase, or pay for, validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer if the General Conditions (as defined below) have not been satisfied or waived. There can be no assurance that such conditions will be met with respect to the Tender Offer.

The Tender Offer may or may not be completed or may be terminated or amended.

Until the Company announces that it has decided to accept valid tenders of Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer, no assurance can be given that the Tender Offer will be completed. Completion of the Tender Offer is subject to, among other things, the conditions to the Tender Offer. Notes that are not successfully tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will remain outstanding. In addition, subject to applicable law and as provided in this Tender Offer Memorandum, the Company may extend, amend, re-open and/or terminate the Tender Offer at any time before such announcement and may, in its sole discretion, waive any of the conditions to the Tender Offer either before or after such announcement.

Noteholders are responsible for consulting with their advisers.

Noteholders should consult their own legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisers regarding the suitability for themselves of the tax, accounting, financial, legal or other consequences of participating or refraining to participate in the Tender Offer. Neither the Company, the Information and Tender Agent, nor any director, officer, employee, agent or affiliate of any such person, is acting for any Noteholder, or will be responsible to any Noteholder for providing any protections which would be afforded to its clients or for providing advice in relation to the Tender Offer, and accordingly neither the Company, the Information and Tender Agent, nor any director, officer, employee, agent or affiliate of any such person, makes any recommendation as to whether holders should tender Notes in the Tender Offer.

Neither the Company, the Dealer Managers nor the Information and Tender Agent (nor any director, officer, employee, agent or affiliate of any such person) is acting for any Holder or will be responsible to any Holder for providing any protections which might be afforded to its clients or for providing advice in relation to the Tender Offer, and accordingly none of the Company, the Trustee, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent (nor any director, officer, employee, agent or affiliate of, any such person) makes any recommendation whether Holders should tender Notes in the Tender Offer.

If Notes are tendered and accepted by the Company in the Tender Offer, it may have an adverse effect on the trading market, market price and price volatility of the Notes that remain outstanding.

To the extent that Notes are tendered and accepted in the Tender Offer, the trading market for the Notes that remain outstanding will become more limited. Any bid for a debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller “float”) may be lower than a bid for a comparable debt security with a greater float. Therefore, the market price for Notes not tendered or tendered but not purchased may be affected adversely to the extent that the Notes purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer reduces the float. The reduced float may also tend to make the trading price more volatile. Holders of unpurchased Notes may attempt to obtain quotations for the Notes from their brokers; however, there can be no assurance that an active trading market will exist for such Notes following the Tender Offer. The extent of the trading market for the Notes following consummation of the Tender Offer will depend upon the number of Holders remaining at such time and the interest in maintaining a market in the Notes on the part of securities firms and other factors. There can be no assurance that any trading market will exist for the Notes following the Tender Offer. None of the Company, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent has any duty to make a market in any of the Notes not purchased in the Tender Offer. The Company does not intend to create or sustain a market for any of the Notes that remain outstanding following consummation of the Tender Offer.

The Company may purchase or redeem additional Notes.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Company and its affiliates may, from time to time, purchase any Notes or other indebtedness, including any Notes that remain outstanding after the consummation or termination of the Tender Offer, through open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, one or more additional tender or exchange offers or otherwise, at prices that may or may not be equal to the Tender Offer Consideration, including greater consideration, for such Notes.

The prices at which any outstanding Notes may be subsequently purchased or redeemed may be more or less than the price to be paid pursuant to the Tender Offer and could be for cash or other consideration or otherwise on terms more or less favorable than those contemplated in the Tender Offer.

Notes not tendered or tendered and not accepted by the Company in the Tender Offer will continue to accrue interest.

Interest on any Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Tender Offer will cease to accrue interest on and after the Payment Date. Any Notes not tendered or tendered but not accepted for payment will continue to accrue interest in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

Tenders of Notes by Sanctions Restricted Persons will not be accepted.

A Noteholder or a beneficial owner of the Notes who is a Sanctions Restricted Person may not participate in the Tender Offer. No steps taken by a Sanctions Restricted Person to tender any or all of its Notes for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will be accepted by the Company and such Sanctions Restricted Person will not be eligible to receive the Tender Offer Consideration. The restriction described in this paragraph shall only be sought and given for the benefit of a Dealer Manager if and to the extent doing so would not be a breach, or a violation by, such Dealer Manager of any provision of the Blocking Regulation as it forms part of the domestic law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.

Minimum Denominations of the Notes.

The Notes can only be tendered in the Tender Offer in a minimum denomination of US$200,000 and integral multiples of US$1,000 in excess thereof.

A Noteholder whose Notes are accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer and who, following purchase of the Notes on the Payment Date, continues to hold in its account with the relevant Clearing System further Notes in a principal amount outstanding of less than the minimum denomination would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that its holding amounts to at least such minimum denomination before (i) the Notes it continues to hold may be traded in the Clearing Systems or (ii) it may receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed).

Participating in the Tender Offer could have tax consequences for Holders

In view of the number of different jurisdictions where tax laws may apply to a Noteholder, save as set out in “Certain Tax Considerations,” this Tender Offer Memorandum does not discuss the tax consequences to Holders of the purchase of Notes by the Company pursuant to the Tender Offer in all jurisdictions that apply to Holders. Holders are urged to consult their own professional advisers regarding these possible tax consequences under the laws of the jurisdictions that apply to them or to the sale of their Notes and their receipt pursuant to the Tender Offer of the Tender Offer Consideration and the Accrued Interest Payment. Holders are liable for their own taxes and similar or related payments imposed on them under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction, and have no recourse to the Company, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent, nor any of their respective affiliates, with respect to such taxes arising in connection with the Tender Offer.

No indication of future intentions of the Company

The making of the Tender Offer by the Company should not be taken as any indication of any future intention of the Company with respect to the Notes or any other matter.

PROCEDURES FOR TENDERING NOTES

Tenders of Notes may be made only in a minimum denomination of US$200,000 principal amount or an integral multiple of US$1,000 in excess thereof (the “Authorized Denominations”).

A defective tender of Notes, unless such defect is waived by the Company, will not entitle the Noteholder thereof to payment of the Tender Offer Consideration and the Accrued Interest Payment. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, payment for Notes accepted for payment will in all cases be made only after compliance by the Noteholder with the procedures set forth below.

The Tender Offer is conditioned upon the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in “Conditions of the Tender Offer” below.

Purpose of the Tender Offer

The purpose of the Tender Offer is to proactively manage the Company’s upcoming debt maturities.

Consideration for the Notes

The Tender Offer Consideration for Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) at or before the Expiration Time will be US$1,006 for each US$1,000 principal amount of Notes tendered pursuant to the Tender Offer.

In addition to the Tender Offer Consideration, Holders whose Notes have been validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will also receive the Accrued Interest Payment, which corresponds to accrued and unpaid interest, if any, in respect of any Notes purchased in the Tender Offer from, and including, the last interest payment date to, but excluding, the Payment Date.

Interest will cease to accrue on the Payment Date for the Notes accepted in the Tender Offer. Any Notes not validly tendered or not accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will continue to accrue interest in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

The Company will calculate the total Tender Offer Consideration and Accrued Interest Payment in respect of all Notes validly tendered and accepted for purchase, and its calculation will be final and binding, absent manifest error.

Tender Offer Period

The Tender Offer commences no later than 10:00 a.m., New York time, on May 18, 2023, and will end at the Expiration Time, being 5:00 p.m., New York time, on May 25, 2023, unless extended or earlier terminated by the Company, subject to applicable law.

If the Expiration Time is extended by the Company, an announcement to that effect will be made by or on behalf of the Company as described below in “Additional Terms of the Tender Offer— Announcements” no later than 10:00 a.m., New York time on the next business day after the Expiration Date.

Results

The results of the Tender Offer are expected to be announced as promptly as practicable following the Expiration Time. The Company will announce the aggregate principal amount of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer, and in the case of the announcement following the Expiration Time only, the aggregate principal amount of Notes that will remain outstanding following the completion of the Tender Offer at the Payment Date. Such information will be notified to Noteholders as described below in “Additional Terms of the Tender Offer — Announcements” and shall, absent manifest error, be final and binding on the Company and the Noteholders.

Notes repurchased by the Company pursuant to the Tender Offer will be promptly cancelled. Notes which have not been validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will remain outstanding after the Payment Date.

Tender of Notes

The tender by a Noteholder (and the subsequent acceptance of such tender by the Company) pursuant to one of the procedures set forth below will constitute a binding agreement between the Noteholder and the Company in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein. The procedures by which Notes may be tendered by beneficial owners who are not registered Noteholders will depend upon the manner in which the Notes are held.

The Company believes that, as of the commencement date of the Tender Offer, all Noteholders hold their Notes through Clearing System accounts and that no Notes are held in physical definitive form. Noteholders who hold Notes through the Clearing Systems must tender Notes through the relevant Clearing Systems' procedures. Beneficial owners whose Notes are held through a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee must contact such broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee if they wish to tender Notes.

Beneficial owners should be aware that their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee may establish its own earlier deadline for participation in the Tender Offer. Accordingly, beneficial owners wishing to participate in the Tender Offer should contact their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee as soon as possible in order to determine the time by which such beneficial owner must take action in order to so participate.

There will be no Letter of Transmittal for the Tender Offer.

Tender of Notes Held Through DTC

Custodial entities that are participants in DTC, other than DTC participants which are acting as custodians for Notes held through Euroclear or Clearstream, must tender Notes through DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program, known as the "ATOP" system, the rules of which the custodial entity and the beneficial owner on whose behalf the custodial entity is acting, agree to be bound. In accordance with ATOP procedures, DTC will verify the acceptance of the Tender Offer and send an Agent's Message to the Information and Tender Agent. An "Agent's Message" is a message transmitted by DTC, received by the Information and Tender Agent and forming part of the Book-Entry Confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgement from the holder that it (i) has received this Tender Offer Memorandum, (ii) will abide by the terms of the Tender Offer, and (iii) has made the confirmations or affirmations that are set forth in this Tender Offer Memorandum.

If a Noteholder transmits its acceptance through ATOP, delivery of an Agent's Message must be timely received by the Information and Tender Agent. If you desire to validly tender your Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer, you must allow sufficient time for completion of the ATOP procedures during the normal business hours of DTC. The Company will have the right, which may be waived, to reject the defective tender of Notes as invalid and ineffective.

Only a direct participant in DTC may submit a Tender Instruction. If a Noteholder is not a direct participant in DTC and holds its Notes through Euroclear or Clearstream, a broker, dealer, commercial bank, depository, trust company or other nominee or intermediary, such Noteholder must contact the relevant nominee or intermediary to instruct such nominee or intermediary to submit a Tender Instruction on its behalf. In the event that the relevant nominee or intermediary is unable to submit a Tender Instruction on its behalf by one of the methods described herein, the Noteholder should contact the Information and Tender Agent for assistance in submitting its Tender Instruction. There can be no assurance that the Information and Tender Agent will be able to assist any such Noteholders in successfully submitting a Tender Instruction.

Tender of Notes Held Through Euroclear or Clearstream

Beneficial owners of Notes held via Euroclear or Clearstream who are not direct participants of Euroclear or Clearstream must contact their custodian to arrange for their direct participants in the relevant Clearing System through which they hold Notes to submit the electronic acceptance and to give instruction to the relevant Clearing System to tender and block the relevant Notes in accordance with the procedures of the relevant Clearing System and the deadlines required by the relevant Clearing System. By blocking the relevant Notes in the relevant Clearing System, it will be deemed to consent, in the case of a direct participant of a Clearing System, to have such Clearing System provide details concerning its identity, account number and any other information included in the instruction, to the Information and Tender Agent (and for the Information and Tender Agent to provide such details to the Company and the Dealer Managers, and their respective legal advisers).

Euroclear or Clearstream may impose earlier deadlines in order to properly process Tender Instructions. As part of tendering Notes through Euroclear or Clearstream, you should be aware of and comply with any such deadlines.

Euroclear or Clearstream Tender Instructions will be deemed to be:

- (i) instructions:
 - (a) to block any attempt to transfer such participant's tendered Notes at or prior to the Payment Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date (as applicable); and
 - (b) to debit such participant's account on the Payment Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date (as applicable) in respect of all of the Notes that such participant has tendered, or in respect of such lesser portion of such Notes as are accepted pursuant to the Tender Offer, in exchange for payment, subject in each case to the automatic withdrawal of the instructions in the event that the Tender Offer is terminated by the Company prior to the Expiration Time, as notified to Euroclear or Clearstream by the Information and Tender Agent;

- (ii) authorization to disclose the name of the direct participant and information about the foregoing instructions; and
- (iii) express acknowledgement that such participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Tender Offer Memorandum and that the Company may enforce that agreement against such participant.

Tenders, which include the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream instructions, must be delivered and received by the relevant Clearing System in accordance with the procedures, and at or prior to the deadlines, established by them. Holders are responsible for informing themselves of those deadlines and for arranging the due and timely delivery of Euroclear or Clearstream Instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream.

Holders should note that Euroclear and Clearstream are direct participants in DTC in respect of the Notes and Tender Instructions delivered to Euroclear and/or Clearstream in respect of the Notes shall in turn be the subject of corresponding Tender Instructions from Euroclear and/or Clearstream to DTC. Holders should ensure that they submit Tender Instructions by such deadline as Euroclear and/or Clearstream require to allow Euroclear and/or Clearstream to provide corresponding Tender Instructions to DTC.

Guaranteed Delivery Procedures

If any Holder wishes to tender its Notes but such Holder cannot comply with the procedures under ATOP for the submission of a valid tender instruction (including the transfer of book-entry interests in the relevant Notes) prior to the Expiration Time, such Holder may effect a tender of its Notes through a firm that is an "eligible guarantor institution” (as that term is defined in Rule 17Ad-15 under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) by complying with the following procedures:

- prior to the Expiration Time, the Information and Tender Agent must receive from such eligible guarantor institution either (i) a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, by e-mail, or (ii) a properly transmitted Agent’s Message and Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, that (1) sets forth the name and address of the direct participant tendering Notes on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and the principal amount of Notes being tendered; (2) states that the tender is being made thereby; and (3) guarantees that the eligible guarantor institution will procure that the relevant Clearing System properly transmits an Agent’s Message or notice of acceptance, as relevant (together with the related book-entry delivery of the relevant Notes) to the Information and Tender Agent by no later than the close of business on the second business day after the Expiration Time (the “Guaranteed Delivery Date”); and
- the Information and Tender Agent receives the book-entry delivery of the relevant Notes into the Information and Tender Agent’s account at DTC by no later than the close of business on the second business day after the Expiration Time.

Holder who wish to use the guaranteed delivery procedures set out above may obtain a form of Notice of Guaranteed Delivery by contacting the Information and Tender Agent. The Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be transmitted in accordance with the usual procedures of DTC; provided, however, that if the notice is sent through electronic means, it must state that DTC has received an express acknowledgement from the Holder on whose behalf the notice is given that the Noteholder has received and agrees to become bound by the form of the notice to DTC. If the ATOP procedures are used to give Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, the direct participant need not complete and deliver the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery; however, the direct participant will be bound by the terms of the Tender Offer.

The delivery of Notes for which Notice of Guaranteed Delivery is made must be made no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, on May 30, 2023 (so long as the Expiration Time is not extended; if the Expiration Time is extended, such Notes must be delivered by the second business day after the extended Expiration Time). Accrued interest will cease to accrue on the Payment Date for all Notes accepted in the Tender Offer, including those for which the guaranteed delivery procedures set out above are used, and under no circumstances will additional interest be paid by the Company after the Payment Date by reason of any delay arising from the use of the guaranteed delivery procedures.

Determination of Validity

The Company will determine all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance of any tendered Notes pursuant to any of the procedures described above in its reasonable discretion (which determination is final and binding). The Company expressly reserves the absolute right, in its reasonable discretion, subject to applicable law, to reject any or all tenders determined by the Company not to be in proper form or, if the acceptance for purchase of, or payment for, such Notes may, in the opinion of the Company’s counsel, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the absolute right, in its sole discretion, subject to applicable law, to waive any defect or irregularity in any tender of Notes by any particular Noteholder, whether or not similar defects or irregularities are waived in the case of other Noteholders. The Company’s interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Tender Offer will be final and binding. Neither the Company, the Information and Tender Agent nor the Trustee nor any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defects or irregularities or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notice. If the Company waives its right to reject a defective tender of Notes, the Noteholder will be entitled to the Tender Offer Consideration and the Accrued Interest Payment for the Notes.

Timely Delivery

Noteholders must tender their Notes in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Tender Offer Memorandum prior to the Expiration Time.

The method of delivery of the Notes, including delivery through the relevant Clearing System and in accordance by the procedures established by them, is at the election and risk of the person tendering the Notes, and delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the Information and Tender Agent.

Unless the Notes being tendered are blocked through the relevant Clearing System by the Expiration Time the Company may, at its option, treat such tender as defective.

No Recommendation

None of the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Trustee, the Information and Tender Agent nor any of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates makes any recommendation as to whether Noteholders should tender their Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer. Noteholders must make their own decisions with regard to tendering Notes.

CONDITIONS OF THE TENDER OFFER

Notwithstanding any other terms of the Tender Offer, and in addition to (and not in limitation of) the Company's right to extend, re-open, amend and/or terminate the Tender Offer, in its reasonable discretion but subject to applicable laws, the Tender Offer is conditioned upon the following conditions being satisfied or waived prior to the Expiration Time.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Tender Offer, the Company will not be obligated to accept for purchase, and pay for, validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer if any of the conditions listed below (the "General Conditions") take place.

- (a) (i) any general suspension of trading in, or limitation on prices for, trading in securities in Indonesia, Singapore, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, the European Union or the United States securities or financial markets or any other significant adverse change in Indonesia, the United Kingdom, the European Union or the United States securities or financial markets, (ii) any significant changes in the prices for the Notes, (iii) a material impairment in the trading market for debt securities generally, (iv) a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks in Indonesia, Singapore, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, the European Union or the United States (whether or not mandatory), (v) any limitation (whether or not mandatory) by any governmental authority on, or other event that, in the reasonable judgment of the Company might affect the nature or extension of credit by banks or other lending institutions in Indonesia, Singapore, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, the European Union or the United States, (vi) any attack on, outbreak or escalation of hostilities, acts of terrorism or any declaration of a national emergency, commencement of war, armed hostilities or other national or international crisis directly or indirectly involving Indonesia, Singapore, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, the European Union or the United States or (vii) any significant adverse change in Indonesia, Singapore, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, the European Union or the United States currency exchange rates or securities or financial markets generally or in the case of any of the foregoing existing on the date hereof, a material acceleration, escalation or worsening thereof;
- (b) the existence of an order, statute, rule, regulation, executive order, stay, decree, judgment or injunction that shall have been enacted, entered, issued, promulgated, enforced or deemed applicable by any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or instrumentality that, in the Company's reasonable judgment, would or would be reasonably likely to prohibit, prevent or materially restrict or delay consummation of the Tender Offer or that is, or is reasonably likely to be, materially adverse to the business, operations, properties, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities or prospects of the Company or its subsidiaries or would materially impair the contemplated benefits of the Tender Offer or be material to Noteholders in deciding whether to accept the Tender Offer;
- (c) there shall have occurred or be likely to occur any event affecting the business or financial affairs of the Company and its subsidiaries that, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, would or might result in any of the consequences referred to in paragraph (b) above;
- (d) any instituted or pending action or proceeding before or by any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or instrumentality, or by any other person, that challenges the making of the Tender Offer or is reasonably likely to directly or indirectly prohibit, prevent, restrict or delay the consummation of the Tender Offer or otherwise adversely affects the Tender Offer in any material manner;
- (e) any other actual or threatened legal impediment to the Tender Offer or any other circumstances that would materially adversely affect the transactions contemplated by the Tender Offer, or the contemplated benefits of the Tender Offer to the Company or its subsidiaries; or

- (f) any event or events that, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, could prevent, restrict or delay consummation of the Tender Offer or materially impair the contemplated benefits to the Company of the Tender Offer or any such event or events shall be likely to occur.

The foregoing conditions described above are solely for the Company's benefit and may be asserted by the Company regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such condition, including any action or inaction by the Company. The Company's failure at any time to exercise any of its rights will not be deemed a waiver of any right, and each right will be deemed an ongoing right which may be asserted at any time and from time to time. The Company's determination concerning any of the events described above will be final and binding upon all Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes. The Company reserves the right, subject to applicable law, in its sole discretion, to waive any of the conditions, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time.

All conditions to the Tender Offer set out in this Tender Offer Memorandum will, if any Notes are to be accepted for purchase on the Payment Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date (as applicable), be either satisfied or waived by the Company concurrently with or before the Expiration Time, a determination of which shall be done by the Company in its reasonable discretion, the Company may extend the Tender Offer and continue to accept tenders or terminate the Tender Offer.

ADDITIONAL TERMS OF THE TENDER OFFER

Additional General Terms of the Tender Offer

The Tender Offer will also be subject to the following additional terms:

1. All communications, payments, notices or certificates to be delivered to or by a Noteholder will be delivered by or sent to or by the Noteholder at the Noteholder's own risk. None of the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Trustee, the Clearing Systems nor the Information and Tender Agent accepts any responsibility for failure of delivery of any notice, communication or electronic acceptance/withdrawal instruction.
2. Tenders of Notes pursuant to any of the procedures described above, and acceptance thereof by the Company for purchase, will constitute a binding agreement between the Company and the tendering Noteholder, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Tender Offer.
3. The Company's interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Tender Offer will be final and binding.
4. Unless waived by the Company, any irregularities in connection with tenders must be cured within such time as the Company may determine. None of the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Trustee, the Clearing Systems, the Information and Tender Agent nor any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defects or irregularities in such tenders, nor will any of such entities incur any liability for failure to give such notice. Tenders of such Notes may be deemed not to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived.
5. Any rights or claims which a Noteholder may have against the Company in respect of any tendered Notes or the Tender Offer will be extinguished or otherwise released upon the payment to such Noteholder of the Tender Offer Consideration for such Notes.
6. For purposes of the Tender Offer, the term "business day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a federal holiday in the United States.
7. Without limiting the manner in which the Company may choose to make any public announcement and subject to all applicable laws and regulations and the requirements of any stock exchange that has jurisdiction over the Company or the Notes, the Company will have no obligation to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any such public announcement other than by issuing a press release or notice to the Information and Tender Agent (who will convey such notice to the Clearing Systems).
8. The Notes are debt obligations of the Company and are governed by the Indenture. There are no appraisal or other similar statutory rights available to Holders in connection with the Tender Offer.

Any contract created by the Company's acceptance for payment in accordance with the terms of the Tender Offer of all Notes validly tendered (or defectively tendered, if such defect has been waived by the Company) will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, New York law.

You will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents and/or do such other things deemed by the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the transfer and cancellation of the relevant Notes to aid delivery of the relevant directions and authorizations or to evidence such power and authority.

Backup Withholding

For a summary of backup withholding and information reporting rules applicable to tendering Holders, see "Certain Tax Considerations."

WITHDRAWAL OF TENDERED NOTES

Notes tendered in the Tender Offer may be withdrawn at any time before the earlier of (i) the Expiration Time and (ii) if the Tender Offer is extended, the 10th business day after the commencement of the Tender Offer. In addition, Notes tendered may be withdrawn at any time after the 60th business day after the commencement of the Tender Offer if for any reason the Tender Offer has not been consummated within 60 business days after commencement.

If the Company makes a material change in the terms of the Tender Offer or the information concerning the Tender Offer or waives a material condition of the Tender Offer, the Company will disseminate additional Tender Offer materials and extend the Tender Offer to the extent required by law. In addition, the Company may, if it deems appropriate, extend the Tender Offer for any other reason.

In order to withdraw Notes, a notice of withdrawal submitted by Noteholders to the relevant Clearing System must:

- be received by the Information and Tender Agent prior to the Expiration Time;
- specify the name of the Noteholder whose offer is to be withdrawn; and
- contain the description of the Notes to be withdrawn, the number of the account at the applicable Clearing System from which the Notes were tendered and the aggregate principal amount represented by such Notes (only in the applicable Authorized Denominations).

The Company reserves the right to contest the validity of any withdrawal. A purported notice of withdrawal that is not received by the Information and Tender Agent in a timely fashion will not be effective.

A withdrawal of a tender of Notes may not be rescinded and any Notes validly withdrawn will not be deemed to be validly tendered for purposes of the Tender Offer. Withdrawn Notes may, however, be re-tendered at any time by the Expiration Time.

Holders can withdraw the tender of their Notes only in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

If the Company extends the Tender Offer or is delayed in its acceptance for purchase of Notes or is unable to purchase the Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer for any reason, then, without prejudice to the Company's rights hereunder, tendered Notes may be retained by the Information and Tender Agent on behalf of the Company and may not be withdrawn (subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, which requires that a company pay the consideration offered or return the securities deposited by or on behalf of the investor promptly after the termination or withdrawal of a tender offer), except as otherwise provided herein.

All questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal will be determined by the Company, in its reasonable discretion, which shall be final and binding. None of the Company, the Information and Tender Agent, the Trustee, the Dealer Managers nor any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defect or irregularity in any notice of withdrawal or incur any liability for failure to give any such notice.

ACCEPTANCE FOR PURCHASE AND PAYMENT

All Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, subject to the terms and conditions herein, will be accepted for payment by the Company and payments will be made on the Payment Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date (as applicable) through the Clearing Systems.

The Payment Date is expected to be the third business day after the Expiration Time, provided that the conditions to the Tender Offer have been satisfied or waived. The Expiration Time is expected to occur at 5:00 p.m., New York time, on May 25, 2023, unless extended by the Company, subject to applicable law. The Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date is expected to be the first business day following the delivery date for tenders made via Notice of Guaranteed Delivery. The Company expects the delivery date for tenders made via Notice of Guaranteed Delivery to be on May 30, 2023. These dates may be postponed if the Tender Offer is extended.

If the Tender Offer is not consummated, no payments will be made with respect to the Tender Offer.

The Company expressly reserves the right, in its reasonable discretion but subject to applicable law: (i) to delay acceptance for payment of Notes tendered under the Tender Offer or the payment for Notes accepted for payment, or to terminate the Tender Offer and not accept for payment any Notes under the Tender Offer, in order to comply in whole or in part with any applicable law, subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, which requires that the Company pays the consideration offered or return the deposited Notes promptly after the termination or withdrawal of the Tender Offer; and (ii) to terminate or withdraw the Tender Offer at any time and not accept for purchase any Notes. In all cases, payment for Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Tender Offer will be made only after satisfaction of the procedures of the relevant Clearing System and after satisfaction of the relevant requirements set forth in “Procedures for Tendering Notes.”

If the Company makes or has made on its behalf full payment to the Clearing Systems on or before the Payment Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Payment Date (as applicable) for the purchase for the Notes accepted for payment, under no circumstances will any additional interest be payable because of any delay in the transmission of funds from the Clearing Systems to Holders or beneficial owners of the tendered Notes. Tendering Noteholders will not be obligated to pay brokerage commissions to the Information and Tender Agent, the Company or the Trustee.

EXPIRATION, EXTENSION, AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Tender Offer expires at 5:00 p.m., New York time, on May 25, 2023, unless extended or earlier terminated by the Company.

The Company expressly reserves the right at any time or from time to time, in its reasonable discretion but subject to applicable law (including Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act), to (i) extend the Tender Offer for such period(s) as it may determine and retain the Notes that have been tendered during the period for which the Tender Offer is extended; (ii) amend the terms of the Tender Offer in any respect; (iii) waive any and all conditions to the Tender Offer; (iv) terminate the Tender Offer and authorize the return of the Notes to the tendering Holders and the unblocking of the Notes in the relevant accounts maintained at the Clearing Systems; and/or (v) take any combination of the actions described in sub-clauses (i) through (iv) above. Any determination by the Company concerning any of the foregoing events will be final and binding upon all Noteholders and beneficial owners of the Notes.

If the Company makes a material change in the terms of the Tender Offer or the information concerning the Tender Offer or waives a material condition of the Tender Offer, the Company will disseminate additional Tender Offer materials and extend the Tender Offer to the extent required by law. In addition, the Company may, if it deems appropriate, extend the Tender Offer for any other reason. The Company may extend the Expiration Time for such period(s) as it may determine. There can be no assurance that the Company will exercise such right to extend the Expiration Time. Any such extension will be followed as promptly as practicable by public announcement thereof, with the announcement in the case of an extension to be issued no later than 10:00 a.m., New York time, on the next business day after the Expiration Date.

During any extension of the Tender Offer, all Notes previously tendered will remain subject to the Tender Offer. Any waiver or amendment to the Tender Offer will apply to all Notes tendered pursuant thereto, regardless of when or in what order those Notes were tendered.

If the Company withdraws, terminates or otherwise does not complete the Tender Offer, it will as soon as practicable give notice thereof to the Information and Tender Agent, and all tendered Notes will be unblocked or released and credited to the account(s) maintained with the relevant Clearing System. In that event, the Tender Offer Consideration and the Accrued Interest Payment for the Notes will not be paid or become payable. In addition, if the Company withdraws, terminates or otherwise does not complete the Tender Offer, the Company will not pay accrued interest on the Notes other than at their regularly scheduled dates of payment pursuant to their terms and the terms of the Indenture.

CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In view of the number of different jurisdictions where tax laws may apply to a Noteholder, this Tender Offer Memorandum does not discuss the tax consequences to Holders of the purchase of Notes by the Company pursuant to the Tender Offer in all jurisdictions that may apply to Holders. Holders are urged to consult their own professional advisers regarding these possible tax consequences under the laws of the jurisdictions that apply to them or to the sale of their Notes and their receipt of the Tender Offer Consideration and the Accrued Interest Payment. Holders are liable for their own taxes and similar or related payments imposed on them under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction, and have no recourse to the Company, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent, nor any of their respective affiliates, with respect to such taxes arising in connection with the Tender Offer.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder (as defined below) of a sale of Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer. This summary deals only with U.S. Holders who have held the Notes as capital assets (generally, property held for investment). The discussion below does not cover all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to the sale of Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer by particular U.S. Holders (including consequences under the alternative minimum tax or net investment income tax), and does not address state, local, non-U.S. or other tax laws (such as estate or gift tax laws). This summary also does not discuss all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to certain type of investors subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (such as certain financial institutions, insurance companies, individual retirement accounts and other tax-deferred accounts, tax-exempt organizations, dealers in securities or currencies, investors that hold the Notes as part of straddles, hedging transactions or conversion transactions for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. Holders that are required to take certain amounts into income no later than the time such amounts are reflected on an applicable financial statement, persons that have ceased to be U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States, investors holding the Notes in connection with a trade or business conducted outside of the United States, U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents living abroad or investors whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar).

As used herein, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of Notes that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax without regard to its source or (iv) a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or the trust has validly elected to be treated as a domestic trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes that holds Notes will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Investors that are entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes should consult their tax advisers concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them and their partners of the Tender Offer.

This summary is based on the tax laws of the United States, including the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, its legislative history, existing and proposed Treasury regulations thereunder, published rulings and court decisions, all as of the date hereof and all subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. No rulings have been requested from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) and there can be no guarantee that the IRS would not challenge, possibly successfully, the treatment described below.

THE SUMMARY OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES SET OUT BELOW IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY. U.S. HOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISERS AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE TENDER OFFER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF STATE, LOCAL, NON-U.S. AND OTHER TAX LAWS AND POSSIBLE CHANGES IN TAX LAW.

Tax Considerations for Tendering U.S. Holders

Sale of the Notes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a sale of a Note pursuant to the Tender Offer will be a taxable transaction to a U.S. Holder. A U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss on the sale of a Note equal to the difference between (i) the amount realized on the sale of the Note, not including the amount allocable to accrued and unpaid interest, which will be taxable as described under “—Accrued Interest” below, and (ii) the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Note. A U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in a Note generally will equal the cost of the Note to the U.S. Holder, increased by the amount of any market discount (as defined below) previously included in the U.S. Holder’s income with respect to the Note and reduced (but not below zero) by any prior principal payments on the Note and any amortizable bond premium previously applied to reduce interest on the Note. Except to the extent discussed below under “—Market Discount,” gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder on a sale of a Note pursuant to the Tender Offer generally will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder’s holding period in the Note is more than one year at the time of sale. In the case of certain non-corporate U.S. Holders (including individuals), long-term capital gains are generally subject to a reduced rate of U.S. federal income tax. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitation.

Gain or loss realized by a U.S. Holder on the sale of a Note generally will be U.S. source. A U.S. Holder generally will not be able to claim a foreign tax credit for any Indonesian tax imposed with respect to a sale of a Note. However, a U.S. Holder may be able to take a deduction for such Indonesian tax or reduce the amount realized in connection with a disposition of the Note by the amount of such Indonesian tax if such U.S. Holder does not elect to claim a foreign tax credit for any foreign taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. The rules governing foreign tax credits and deductions are complex. U.S. Holders are urged to consult with their own tax advisers regarding the application of these rules in their particular circumstances.

Accrued Interest. Any amount received by a U.S. Holder upon the sale of a Note that is attributable to accrued and unpaid interest will be taxable to the U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income to the extent that such interest has not been previously included in income by the U.S. Holder.

Market Discount. Gain recognized by a tendering U.S. Holder will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of any market discount on the Notes that has accrued during the period that the tendering U.S. Holder held the tendered Notes, unless the U.S. Holder previously made an election to include market discount in income as it accrues for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A Note generally will be treated as having market discount if the stated principal amount of the Note at the time that the U.S. Holder acquired the Note exceeded the U.S. Holder’s basis in that Note by an amount equal to or more than a statutorily defined de minimis amount. Market discount accrues on a ratable basis, unless the U.S. Holder has elected to accrue market discount using a constant yield method. Any gain in excess of such accrued market discount generally will be capital gain, as discussed above under “—Sale of the Notes.” U.S. Holders that acquired Notes other than at original issuance should consult their tax advisers regarding the possible application of the market discount rules to the sale of the Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of the proceeds of sale of Notes by a U.S. paying agent or other U.S. intermediary will be reported to the IRS and to the U.S. Holder as may be required under applicable Treasury regulations. Backup withholding may apply to these payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide an accurate taxpayer identification number or certification of exempt status or fails to comply with applicable certification requirements. Certain U.S. Holders are not subject to backup withholding. U.S.

Holders should consult their tax advisers as to their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Tax Considerations for Non-Tendering U.S. Holders

A Holder that does not tender its Notes or does not have its tender of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will not realize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the Tender Offer, and such Holder will continue to have the same tax basis, holding period and accrued market discount (if any) with respect to the retained Notes.
